

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CAPTAIN JULIE M. DEWEY

Capt Julie M. Dewey is Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies and Education Officer at the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps Detachment 765, The Citadel. As the Education Officer, she is responsible for overseeing the completion of all instruction-related activities for one of the largest cadet corps in the Air Force.

Capt Dewey received her commission through the Reserve Officer Training Corps from the University of South Florida, Detachment 158 in 2014. She completed force support officer training in March 2015, and since then has held a variety of positions related to mission support.

Prior to her current assignment, Capt Dewey served three years at Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska. During this time, she served as the installation's Deputy Sexual Assault Coordinator. She also led the Pacific Air Force's largest and sole joint Military Personnel Flight. Her team's hard work helped garner the General Curtis E. LeMay Award for best large Force Support Squadron in the Air Force and the Commander in Chief's Installation Excellence Award. She has also deployed to an Undisclosed Location in support of Operation Inherent Resolve as a Protocol Officer.
