

ROMEO CO TAC Officer

CAPTAIN JORDAN P. DIEHL

United States Marine Corps Reserve

---

Captain Jordan P. Diehl entered recruit training with Golf Company, 2nd Recruit Training Battalion in January 2010 and graduated as a private in March 2010.

In July of 2010, then Private First Class Diehl was assigned to B Company 4th Combat Engineer Battalion. While with B Company he conducted training in Morocco, 29 Palms, and Camp Lejeune and also attended Corporals Course and Sappers Leadership Course in Camp Lejeune.

In May 2013 then Corporal Diehl graduated Bridgewater College with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Information Systems Management. In January of 2016 then Sergeant Diehl attended Officer Candidate School and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corp Reserve.

After attending Infantry Officer Course 1-17, and Light Armored Reconnaissance Leaders Course, Second Lieutenant Diehl was assigned to B Company 4th Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion. He deployed in 2017 with Operation MEXMAR as a Foreign Service advisor and trained Mexican Naval Academy Cadets as well as standing up the country's first Amphibious Reconnaissance Battalion. While with B Company, First Lieutenant Diehl conducted training in Michigan, Maryland, and Virginia.

Captain Diehl currently is currently assigned as the Executive Officer with F Company 4th Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion. His Personal awards includes the Navy Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and Selected Marine Reserve medal (bronze star in lieu of 2nd award).

Captain Diehl joined the Commandants Department in July, 2021 as the Romeo Company TAC Officer.

Captain Diehl is married to the former Jennie Winschel of Basye, Virginia. They reside in Charleston, SC with their dog, Ryker.